The University of Mississippi

Violence-Free Workplace Policy

Summary/Purpose: The University of Mississippi’s goal is to ensure the safety of all university campuses, facilities, activities, and events so that students, employees (faculty and staff), and visitors can work, learn, and enjoy an environment free from violence and threats. The purpose of this policy is to encourage all employees to report incidents of threats, aggression, and other prohibited behaviors and acts of any individual(s) on university properties to their immediate supervisor, University Police Department, and/or Human Resources. This policy lists prohibited conduct and outlines reporting responsibilities and procedures should a safety concern arise.

Prohibited Conduct

University of Mississippi prohibits violence, threats of violence, and any other behavior that risks or harms the safety of any university campus, facility, activity, or event, or that raises a reasonable concern for the safety of students, employees, or visitors at a university campus or related facility or during university-sponsored activities or events.

“Violence” is defined as any intentional or reckless act that physically harms people or property. “Threat of violence” refers to any verbal or physical conduct that conveys the intent to cause physical harm or to place someone in fear of physical harm.

Prohibited conduct includes, but is not limited to:

- Any ongoing or regularly reoccurring aggressive behavior that would make it difficult for a reasonable person in that workplace to perform his or her duties.
- Engaging in any act of violence toward a person or property
- Making a direct, indirect, or conditional threat of harm
- Engaging in any conduct, including aggression, intimidation, harassment, belligerence, and disruptive or erratic behavior, that has the purpose or effect of generating a reasonable concern for physical safety. Such conduct may consist of: physical acts, oral or written statements, harassing electronic media (i.e. emails text, Facebook, twitter, snapchat, etc.), telephone calls, gestures, or behaviors.
- Damaging or destroying university property or equipment, or threatening such harm
- Engaging in stalking or aggressive pursuit
- Participating in, or encouraging, a fight
- Using any instrument to injure, threaten, or intimidate
- Brandishing or using any firearm, explosive, or weapon of any kind or possessing a firearm in violation of University policy or state law.
- Using university resources to engage in threats or violence towards anyone

In the interest of protecting safety, the university reserves the right to address any behavior in addition to that described above whenever the conduct generates a reasonable concern for the safety or wellbeing of students, employees, or visitors at a university campus or related facility or during university-sponsored activities or events.
Violation of this policy is considered to be serious misconduct and can lead to disciplinary and/or other appropriate responsive action, up to and including termination. In addition, where appropriate, the university may pursue civil and/or criminal prosecution.

When this Policy Applies

This policy applies to employees, vendors, contractors, consultants, clients, and all persons, whether affiliated with the University of Mississippi or not, who visit a campus or facility or conduct business with the university.

This policy applies to behavior occurring at any university campus or facility. In addition, this policy can apply to conduct occurring off-campus and off-duty, if that conduct generates a reasonable concern for safety at a university campus or related facility or during university-sponsored activities or events, or for the safety of students, employees, or visitors.

“Workplace” is defined as the work setting in general, including any university education program or activity, which means all academic, research, educational, public service and outreach, extracurricular, athletic, and other programs.

Reporting Responsibilities

All employees are encouraged to remain alert to, and must immediately report any behaviors listed in the “Prohibited Conduct” section above to the persons listed in the “Where to Report” section below. No student or employee should assume that an official knows about a particular situation.

In addition, all employees must report any conduct that indicates an employee might intentionally commit self-inflicted harm.

Required reporting includes but is not limited to behavior described above that any employees experience, witness, or otherwise become aware of, regardless of: (a) whom that behavior affects, (b) the perpetrator’s relationship to the university or its students or employees, and (c) whether the behavior occurs on or off campus, if there is reason to believe that the behavior could affect safety of students, employees, or affiliates.

Employees are encouraged to report any behaviors of concern, whether or not strictly covered by this policy, so that the university may evaluate the need to address conduct potentially affecting the wellbeing of students, employees, or visitors.

Nothing in this policy is intended to require that any employee breach legally protected privilege or confidences, unless otherwise permitted by law.

The University of Mississippi reserves the right to investigate and resolve a complaint or report of workplace violence regardless of whether the complainant ultimately desires officials to pursue the complaint.
Where to Report

When appropriate, complaints under this policy may be reported to the University Police and Campus Safety Department, Human Resources, or the Office of Equal Opportunity and Regulatory Compliance. All reports or complaints under this policy will be investigated and include confidentiality where appropriate. Once an investigation is complete, a recommendation on how to handle the complaint will be submitted to the appropriate area for disposition. The University may assist in pursuing civil penalties, criminal penalties, or other appropriate action against the offender.
