Summary/Purpose: This policy explains the responsibility all students living in Student Housing have with regard to the activities that take place in their residence hall room. It is imperative that students work to ensure that no inappropriate or illegal activities take place in their room, whether or not they actively participate.

You are responsible for all activities that occur in your residence hall room. By allowing the existence of behaviors or items that violate residence hall or University policy, you have demonstrated an implied consent for the violations. As a resident, you are responsible for taking an active role in ensuring that inappropriate behaviors or items do not exist in your residence hall room. It is your responsibility to report behaviors or items that violate residence hall or University policy to a staff member. Passive participation in events that violate University or residence hall policy will not be tolerated and, in determining responsibility for violations, will be viewed as equal to active participation.

You will be considered in violation of hall and University policy if they fail to remove themselves from an incriminating situation in any location in the residence halls.
