Respect for Property

Summary/Purpose: To protect the University community by prohibiting acts that may damage or deface property owned by others.

The University of Mississippi prohibits the willful abuse or damage including but not limited to, littering, vandalism, or defacing of University property or the property of students, faculty, staff, and guests. It is expected that all members of the University community will treat the property of the University and of others with respect. Students will be held responsible for any destruction or damage to University or personal property and may face discipline through the University conduct system, as well as criminal and/or civil liability.
